Resources for American Literary Study will consider submissions, documented according to the MLA Style Manual (1985), in the following categories:

- 1 Annotated and evaluative checklists of critical and biographical scholarship on the significant works (prose, poetry, and drama) of major authors or the total work of minor authors.
- 2 Evaluative bibliographical essays on major authors, works, genres, trends, and periods.
- 3 Informative accounts or catalogues of significant collections of research materials of literary and cultural interest available in archives and libraries, with special attention to recent acquisitions.

- 4 Edited correspondence, personal papers, unpublished materials, and other documents and essays of interest to literary scholars and cultural historians.

Resources for American Literary Study is published twice each year in the spring and autumn by Resources for American Literary Study, Inc. Yearly subscription rate: $15.00 in the United States and Canada and $18.00 elsewhere.
